

GARY CLATTERBUCK - Field Coordinator for R*ssia

NOVEMBER 2016

Dear Family and Friends,

Please meet brother Gennadi from Kh*bar*vsk. He is a vital person in the Far East of R*ssia. We need to be upholding him and all our leaders in R*ssia.

The country is in a time of major change. There are many questions that come to mind as we read news accounts from that region of the world. You likely have questions because of my time in the country in October. I have a much better view of our future in encouraging leaders.

Because of the many changes and events, it is unwise at this point to expand on the many things in country. This week I have completed a long explanation that I would be glad to share if you would email me at gfclat@gmail.com, and I will be glad to send the details of my recent trip and overall view of what we have been called to do.

You will note I'm avoiding many terms right now because this is electronic communication, which means we are not sure it isn't being read.

Know that we are continuing the work; we have specific needs which are outlined in the letter. Please understand that soon we should be able to decide on which methods of communication are best. I am gladly paying for postage so you can be informed.

Your support and prayers are needed.

Gary Clatterbuck
