“These were his instructions to them: ‘The harvest is great, but the workers are few. So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields.’”

SEMINARY NEWS

This past December, we held our second graduation for the Pastoral Formation program. We also had the privilege to host visiting professors with us twice during this second semestre. In August, Alan and Judy Steier were here to teach Chaplaincy and in October, Steve Garcia and Mike Encoe taught Communications and New Technologies. Lyndell and her colleagues, Brandon and Marci Jones, are working on launching the Kairos Project (from Sioux Falls and Taylor Seminaries) in Brazil this year which Brandon will coordinate and Lyndell will serve as one of the academic mentors.

CHURCH NEWS

In December we held a Christmas Tea for families in our community where our ballet students from our Saturday Children's club performed. We also had a wonderful Christmas celebration where every family in the church contributed to the service through prayers, readings, and song.

PERSONAL NEWS

Lyndell has started her second semestre as an online student in the PhD (Intercultural Studies) from Columbia International University. She is now preparing her formal proposal so that she can begin her field research later in the year.
