

Brazil – College/University Intern(s)

Who:

- College and university students who can spend a semester or summer to earn credits in a cross-cultural missionary environment

Job Description:

- Potential options for placement include working on a church planting team, taking Bible college classes at a Brazilian partner institution, working in camp ministry, or social ministry in poor communities or with immigrants.

Requirements:

- Be enrolled in a college or university that gives credits for field education or overseas ministry experience.
- Ability to read, write, and speak Portuguese or Spanish or a willingness to learn during the internship.
- Trained in cross-cultural engagement and missions (introductory level at a minimum).
- Committed disciple of Jesus and in full agreement with the NAB Statement of Faith.

