

Brazil – Undefined-Term Professor

Job Description:

- Work to bring theological education to partner seminaries and local churches in Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil.
- Design and develop classes in specialized areas, such as church history, biblical studies, and practical ministry.
- Deliver dynamic, culturally sensitive, academically rigorous, and spiritually formative classes.
- Evaluate student performance through constructive feedback and grading.

Requirements:

- Minimum of a master's degree in a related field
- Prior teaching experience.
- Prior experience as a cross-cultural volunteer professor is helpful.
- Prior experience in church leadership/ministry positions.
- Be a faculty mentor with Kairos University.
- Trained in cross-cultural engagement and missions.
- Ability to read, write, and speak Portuguese required, with the opportunity to learn upon arrival in Brazil.
- Mature, committed disciple of Jesus and in full agreement with the NAB Statement of Faith.