

Philippines – Arts Hub Studio Manager

Job Description:

We're looking for an artist with administrative skills to oversee an arts studio ministry called the Aninag Arts Hub. You'll equip and empower Filipino Christian artists, as well as reach out to locals through arts (arts as therapy, art workshops, team building art events, etc.) for Kingdom purposes.

- Long term: 1–3 years or more (short-term exposure of 2–3 months required)

Responsibilities:

- Oversee the operations of (and possibly invest in) the arts studio and ministry (it's a visual arts and music studio). This will be a Business as Mission (B.A.M.), which makes it a self-sustaining ministry where the business side will provide for the operations of the studio.
- Use your skills and passion for art to bring Jesus to people through building relationships, blessing and loving people in practical ways for Christ.
- Mentor staff who are Filipino Christian artists.
- Mobilize Christian artists from your region to do arts as mission exposure trips to help with this arts hub ministry.
- Contribute to team ministries.
- Live in the local community.
- Learn the culture and local language.

