

Romania – Field Director

Job Description:

The North American Baptist Conference is seeking an experienced global mission worker to serve as the Mission Field Director for the NAB's work in Romania. The Romania Field Director serves as the North American Baptist Conference's primary leader in Romania, responsible for overseeing the NAB's mission efforts alongside our Romanian ministry partners. This leadership role involves overseeing the strategic development of missional partnerships, supporting local Romanian and North American church connections, and supporting the ministry effort in Romania, along with the village outreach. A key responsibility of this position will be to steward the growing opportunities for church-planting and holistic ministries among the Roma and Hungarian people in Romania.

This position comes at a pivotal time, as the ministry enters a new season of growth, requiring seasoned leadership to deepen partnerships, expand outreach, and steward emerging opportunities for Gospel impact. This role provides leadership to field ministry operations, supervises NAB missionaries, and facilitates strategic partnerships between NAB and local Hungarian churches.
